9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):		ACIN I-42-07 re: contributions (?)

Question 1: If a husband is living in another state while looking for work, and is expected to be gone for over 30 days, is he considered part of the CalFresh household with his wife or children or not?

Question 2: If a husband is living in another state while looking for work is receiving UIB, and the UIB is being directly deposited into a joint account, and the wife is using this money to pay the household's bills, are these deposits considered unearned income to the household?

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:

Proposed Answer 1: The husband can not be part of the CalFresh household with his wife and children because he is not residing with them, and eating meal with them.

Proposed Answer 2: The direct deposits of the husband's UIB into the joint account which is available and being used by his wife are considered unearned income to the CalFresh household based on 63-502.144>

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

State concurs with the proposed responses.

As stated in ACIN I-52-02, if a CalFresh participant or a member of a CalFresh household leaves the country or state due to an emergency, is there a time limit on how long that individual or household member can be gone without the CalFresh benefits being affected?

ANSWER:

CalFresh regulations provide, with certain exceptions, that a household shall consist of persons who live together and customarily purchase food and prepare meals together for home consumption (MPP 63-402.13). Eligibility is determined on a monthly basis and household composition is an eligibility factor. Therefore, persons included in the household for any month must live with the household and purchase and prepare meals with the household for at least part of the month (MPP 63-402.131). With regard to months when a person is not in the household at all, the person does not fit into the household definition; therefore, he or she cannot be considered a member for that month. However, any of his or her income made available to the household would be counted as income to the household (MPP 63-503.45). Similarly, any of an absent person's resources to which the household has access would be counted as resources of the household for food stamp purposes (MPP 63-501.2 and 63-503.45). Pursuant to MPP 63-505.3 and 63-505.5 households shall report changes in household composition and other relevant circumstances affecting eligibility.
